[DRAFT] TERMS OF REFERENCE
National Research Coordinator for
TIJ research project on transnational organized crimes in Southeast Asia

1. Work location

Home-based with travel to Bangkok, Thailand

2. Travel and expenses

Two separate two-day meetings with TIJ staff are expected to be held in Bangkok. The travel and accommodation expenses for the proposed meetings will be borne by TIJ.

3. Duration

The estimated amount of work is a total of two working months over the course of the project from January to August 2020

4. Qualifications and other requirements

- Master's degree in criminal justice, criminology, criminal law, or other relevant social science
- Experience in academic work or research studies in the related fields
- Good command of English

Desirable qualifications

- Experience working with law enforcement, the judiciary or public security institutions of the national government
- Experience working with ASEAN, UN agencies, or other international institutions

5. Background

The TIJ research project is a follow-up to the draft UNICRI – TIJ study on the threats and challenges posed to Thailand by transnational organized crime in the context of the ASEAN community. While this earlier study focused on one country, Thailand, the current project examines the situation from the perspective of five [number of countries to be confirmed] other ASEAN Member States.

6. Objectives

The purpose of the TIJ research project is to examine the extent to which ASEAN countries are prepared to respond to the challenges brought by transnational organized crime as a consequence of the dynamics of ASEAN integration in all three pillars, which are the ASEAN Political and Security Community, the ASEAN Economic Community and the ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community, as well as various other recent significant political, economic and technological changes.

7. Tasks to be performed

7.1 Desk research

The national coordinators, assisted as necessary by TIJ staff, are requested to collect information on at least the following issues and prepare on this basis an estimated 30 page overview of:

- a. the legal framework against TOC in the country in question; how TOC is defined in domestic criminal law and the other key criminal law provisions related to organized crime
- b. brief description of the relevant structure of the criminal justice system
- c. possible key judicial precedents on the definition of TOC
- d. key national programmes or policy statements relevant to the prevention and control of TOC
- e. possible national statistics on criminal cases reported to the police, and criminal cases decided by the courts, for the most recent five years
- f. possible academic and NGO research on TOC
- g. possible reports in the media on TOC

The national coordinator should consult the guideline for the desk research which will be provided by TIJ.

7.2 Interviews

The national coordinators are expected to interview representatives of the key stakeholders in the country. The number of representatives to be interviewed could range between ten and fifteen, depending on the administrative structure of the country. The national coordinators should refer to the tentative list of stakeholders and the interview framework developed by TIJ. Each national coordinator is expected to prepare a report of approximately 30 pages summarizing the results of the interviews.

7.3 Meetings

The national coordinators are requested to attend two meetings with TIJ in Bangkok. The first meeting is proposed to be held in January 2020 to agree upon research plans and proposals. The second meeting is proposed to be held in August 2020 to discuss findings and recommendations. The national coordinators are also expected to give their assessments on the draft research report which will be compiled and developed by TIJ.

8. Expected outputs and payment schedule

TIJ will provide a maximum of 9,800 USD or approximately 300,000 THB for each national coordinator upon submission of expected outputs. The payment will be made based upon outputs specified under this Section and upon certification of satisfactory work endorsed by TIJ.

Outputs	Due Date	Payment
1) Submission of research plan	1 Feb 2020	10 %
2) 30 page national profile in English based on the provided template	30 Apr 2020	90%
3) 30 page interview summary in English summarizing the interviews based on the provided template
4) Full transcript of all the interviews in original language
5) Audio files of all the interviews in original language

9. Financial responsibilities of the national coordinator

The national coordinator shall be the person liable for the following payments in accordance with the Thai Revenue Law:

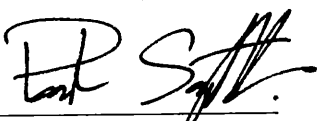

- Income tax at the rate of 15 per cent
- Stamp duty tax of 1 baht for every 1,000 baht or fraction thereof of the remuneration agreed.

TIJ will undertake all administrative arrangements as necessary for the abovementioned responsibilities on behalf of the national coordinator.

10. Intellectual property

TIJ shall, solely and exclusively, own all rights in and to any work created in connection with this agreement, including all data, documents, information, copyrights, patents, trademarks, or other proprietary rights in and to the work. The direct contributions of the national coordinators will be acknowledged in the final report of the research project.

Both Parties have read and understood the texts herein and agree to the Terms of Reference upon the affix of their signatures:
